

THE WRITINGS OF
HENRY DAVID THOREAU

JOURNAL

EDITED BY BRADFORD TORREY

VIII

NOVEMBER 1, 1855-AUGUST 15, 1856

BOSTON AND NEW YORK
HOUGHTON MIFFLIN AND COMPANY

The Riverside Press, Cambridge

1906

COPYRIGHT 1906 BY HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.

All rights reserved

CONTENTS

- CHAPTER I. November, 1855 (Æt. 38) 3
- A Beautiful Indian-Summer Day — A Swimming Kitten — The River-Brink in November — Living and Getting a Living — The White Birch Fungus — The Lecheas — Collecting Driftwood — Birches and Willows — The Pleasures of a Mizzling Afternoon — A Dead Mouse — A Summer Duck — The Uses of Driftwood — Ways of Living — The Muskrat's House — The Hemlock Fall — A Mink — The Opening of a Pine Cone — A Muskrat under the Ice — Rice's Successful Life — Tracks in the Snow — Getting the Winter's Wood — A Talk with Minott — Rice's Turtle Story — An Old Way of Catching Wolves — Bringing Home the Boat.
- CHAPTER II. December, 1855 (Æt. 38) 38
- Empty Halls — A Talk with Therien — A Spruce Swamp — The Lesser Redpolls — Visits of the Northern Birds — The Beauty of Nature — Geese going over Cities — Tracks in the Snow — A Hemlock in Winter — Red Squirrels — Detecting Holes in the Ice — December Colors — Moderation in Buying Land — Root Fences — An Ice-incrusted World — Autobiographical — A Shrike — Red-wings' Nests — A Walk in a Swamp — Ice-coated Grass — Birds' Nests in Winter — One of the Mornings of Creation — Snow on the Railroad.
- CHAPTER III. January, 1856 (Æt. 38) 76
- Leaf Crystals on the Ice — Tracing Tracks in the Snow — Squirrel-Burrows in Snow — Honorables — Snow Ice — Pickerel-Fishing — Snow-Crystals — The Voracious Pickerel — A Snow-Drift — A Dangerous Cow — Family Reminiscences — Green Ice — Snow and Sand — The Swamp in Winter — A Snowed-up House — The January Sunsets — Fishes in Winter — Measuring Snow — A Vireo's Nest — Hemlock Twigs — Analysis of a Bird's Nest — Blue Shadows on the Snow — Clouds at Night — Water Milkweed Fibre — The Disadvantages of Wealth — Walking on the River — Another Nest Analyzed — A Big Elm — Squirrels and Hollow Trees — Crows and Pickerel-Bait — The Passing of an Old Tree — Tracks in the Snow — The Charm of the Journal — The Hymns of the Rig Veda — A Crow's Tracks — The Citizenship of the Elms — A Cold, Windy Day — Taking Ether — The Great Elm — Walking on the River — Rings of Growth in Trees — Traces of Ancient Mills — The September Gale — Measuring Snow — A New Leaf of Nature's Album — Tracks of Mice and Birds.

CHAPTER IV. February, 1856 (Ær. 38)

158

A Gray Rabbit — A Crow Blackbird's Nest — The Great Snow of 1717 — Cutting out a Cake of Ice — Icy Snow-Crust — Pickerel-Fishing — Mud Turtles — Gray Squirrels — Popular Astronomy — A Fox's Track — A Partridge — Fallen Pine-Needles — A Natural Willow Hedge — Measuring Snow — An Otter-Track — The Jones Genealogy — The Prospect of War between England and America — A Sawmill — Min, the Cat — Minott's Stories — Minott and Emerson.

CHAPTER V. March, 1856 (Ær. 38)

196

Haynes's Axe-Helves — Birch Seed on the Snow — Two Friends — A Cold March Day — The Art of Printing — The Dissipation of Travel — Measuring Ice on Walden — Tapping Trees — Spilt Sap — Fishes in Nut Meadow Brook — Measuring Snow and Ice — What Befell at Mrs. Brooks's — Thawing — Sap-Spouts — Making Maple-Sugar — Maple Sap — The Loss of the Nobler Animals — A Striped Squirrel — Sugar-making — The Melting Ice on Walden — The History of Husbandry — Death of Uncle Charles Dunbar — Diverging Paths of Friends — The Footsteps of Spring — Leaves Sunk in Snow.

CHAPTER VI. April, 1856 (Ær. 38)

236

The Melting of the Snow — Evidences of Spring — Rain and Green Grass — Columella and Hosmer — Stories of Uncle Charles — The Breaking-up of the River — Skunk-Cabbage — Sheldrakes in the Meadow — The First Bluish Haze — A Large Bird — Muskrat-Shooting — Ice in the River — Cow-slips in Bloom — Muskrats — Marsh Hawks — The Return of the Birds — Yellow-Spot Tortoises — A Striped Snake — The Pine Warbler — Fast-Day — Rusty Grackles — Birch Sap and Birch Wine — The Swift Assabet — White Maple and Alder — The Bay-Wing's Song — A Fish Hawk — A Sail on the River — The First Painted Tortoise — The First Toad of the Year — Some Bird-Notes — Hail and Thunder — Rain on the River — White Lily Roots — The Seringo — Description of a Muskrat bought of Goodwin — Sailing in the Rain — A White-throated Sparrow — Eels stopping a Mill-Wheel — April Wells — A Coot — The Voice of the Toad — Shamrock — Lucretius — Up Assabet — Tarbell — Anemones in Bloom — The Charm of Sailing — The First Brown Thrasher — A Flight of Swallows.

CHAPTER VII. May, 1856 (Ær. 38)

321

Myriads of Gnats — Luke Dodge — A Colony of Bank Swallows — Spearing Fish at Miles's Dam — A Young Snapping Turtle — Some Birds and Flowers — Man and Marshes — Puzzling Willows — Dead Bank Swallows — The Succession of Forest Trees — Clearing out a Spring — A Box Tortoise — A Splendid Hummingbird — The Cow's Food and Drink — Iridescent Oil on Water — A Venerable Mud Turtle — A Traveller's Song — Barrett's Sawmill — Nature's Summer Voice — Rose-breasted Grosbeaks — Stellaria — A Way to catch Partridges — A Sparrow's Nest — A Ground-Bird's Nest — Nighthawks.

CHAPTER VIII. June, 1856 (Ær. 38)

361

The Succession of Forest Trees — A Chickadee's Nest — "Perch" Hosmer — A Star-nosed Mole — The Vivacious Willow — A Flight of Ephemerae — Lily Pads — A Tortoise laying her Eggs — The Stillness of Summer Noons — A Partridge with Young — To Worcester — From Worcester to Purgatory — Rev. Horace James's Reptiles — Some Rare Plants — A Downy Woodpecker's Nest — At Ricketson's, New Bedford — To Sassacowen Pond and Long Pond — Brewer on Song Sparrows — Sconticut Neck — Martha Simons, an Indian — Naushon — To the Middleborough Ponds — The Tweezer-Bird — Perch and Alewives.

CHAPTER IX. July, 1856 (Æt. 38-39) 398

Menhaden in the Acushnet — Return to Concord — Tortoises along the River — A Peetweet and its Young — Gérard, the Lion-Killer — Screech Owls — The Great Meadows — The Short-tailed Shrew — Birds and Cherry Trees — A School of Little Pouts — A Water Adder — Minnows — A Box Tortoise — The Money-Diggers — Partridges' Dusting-Places — Up River with Russell — A Bullfrog swallowing a Smaller Frog — The Grass Balls — Hypericums — Birch Wine — Rocks in the River — A Chimney Swallow's Nest — A Perfect Dog-Day — A Green Bittern — Fair Haven Pond.

CHAPTER X. August, 1856 (Æt. 39) 438

The Dog-Days — Bright Beds of Rhexia — The Emblematic Green Bittern — Dragon-Flies — River-Meadow Hay — A Profusion of Berrics — The House-Leek — The Steam Calhipe — A Lost Pig — In Pursuit of the Pig — The Pig caught at last — Getting him Home — A Long Thunder-Storm — Some Asters — The Convexity of the Earth — A Puzzling Goldenrod — Toads' Temples — Labor Lost — Toadstools — Six Young Mice — Parsnip Seed.

ILLUSTRATIONS

CONCORD ELMS ( page 136)	Frontispiece
FROST-CRYSTALS ON ICE	78
SKUNK-CABBAGE	248
LADY'S-SLIPPERS	366
BAKER FARM AND FAIR HAVEN POND	402