

THE WRITINGS OF
HENRY DAVID THOREAU

JOURNAL

EDITED BY BRADFORD TORREY

X

AUGUST 8, 1857—JUNE 29, 1858

BOSTON AND NEW YORK
HOUGHTON MIFFLIN AND COMPANY

The Riverside Press, Cambridge

1906

COPYRIGHT 1906 BY HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.

All rights reserved

CONTENTS

- CHAPTER I. August, 1857 (Æt. 40) 3
- Glow-Worms — A Remarkable Fungus — Life — Jewelry, False and True — A Cuckoo — With Austin Bacon in Natick — Emerson at Naushon — A Veteran of the Revolution — Ground-Nuts.
- CHAPTER II. September, 1857 (Æt. 40) 21
- Some Large Yellow Birches — A Large Rhus radicans — Prinos lavigatus — At Bateman's Pond — Larch Trees and a Tupelo — Gathering Pine Cones — A Wood Frog — A Beautiful Pine Grove — More Glow-Worms — Nabalus — Beach Plums — A Dense White Pine Grove — A Squirrel burying a Nut — Hardwood Trees under Pines — The Blushing of the Red Maple — An Old Grist-Mill — Crickets — A Virtuous Red Maple — Hawks — Poitrine Jaune Grosse — Vandalism — A Talk with Minott — Wyman and the Crow.
- CHAPTER III. October, 1857. (Æt. 40) 55
- The Changing of the Leaves — Old Furniture — Employed as a Mason — Building a Wood-Shed — Kicked by a Horse — Minott's Peach Tree Story — A Red Squirrel — The Turning Foliage — Ruskin's "Modern Painters" — The Red of a Maple Swamp — Autumn from Fair Haven Hill — Entertaining Visitors — Walden's Brilliant Belt — A Rabbit's Living Tomb — An Ulmarium — An Irishman digging Mud — The Telltale Smokes — Frosty Mornings — An Old Grist-Mill — A Distant Elm — Autumnal Tints — Golden Autumn — The Solvency of Sand-Banks — The Fall of the Pine Leaves —

Reflections — A Great Fall of Leaves — Indian Summer — Witch-Hazel — The Fallen Pine-Needles — The Principal Stages in the Autumnal Change — The Trainers and their Band — Water-Bugs — The Creaking of Crickets — A Cheery Old Man — Melvin's Nutting — The Easterbrooks Country — A Talk with Melvin — A Repulsive Eel — The Poet's Journal — A Connoisseur in Wood — Blue Water — The Indian Arrowhead — The Horizon Mountains — The Chestnut — Evergreen Ferns — Sal Cummings on Kansas — Picking Chestnuts — Two Great Birds — Moods and Seasons — Chipmunks and Acorns — The Reign of Water — The Facts of a Poet's Life — The Littleton Giant — A Serene, Elysian Light — A Soaring Hen-Hawk — The Growth of an Apple — The Little Brown Snake — Early Morning Thoughts — A Dream Mountain — Amusements — The Most Profitable Companion — The True Way to crack the Nut of Happiness — Ruskin and Nature — Green Ferns — The Brave Skunk-Cabbage.

CHAPTER IV. November, 1857 (Æt. 40)

152

Witch-Hazel — Polypody — Reflections and Reflections — Pictures and Picture-Frames — Nature repairing Damages — Bloom — The Sunset from Pine Hill — A Talk with Minott — The Polypody again — The Point of Interest — Brooks Clark's Reminiscences — A Flock of Geese — A Carpet of Leaves — The Swamp Pyrus — The Boy and the Bound — Indian Corn-Hills — Surveying Companions — A Boundary Dispute — A Cold Morning — A Mouse's Hoard — The First Freezing Day — Holden Swamp — A Deer Mouse — C. Miles Swamp — Desirable Evergreen Trees — A Hard-working Irishman — Sympathy with Nature — Life under a Stone — The Interesting in Books — Native Soil — Some Sportive Bullocks — A Woodcock — Gowing's Swamp — The Andromeda Ponds — Writing Poetry — November Eat-Heart — At Hubbard's Close — A Fox — A Story of a Stutterer — Minott's House — Frosted Windows — Snares for Partridges — A Wildcat's Caterwaul — The Colors of the Withered Oak Leaves — The Growth of a Rumor — The Air full of Geese.

CHAPTER V. December, 1857 (Æt. 40)

218

A Red Squirrel in the Tree-Tops — The Village Aristocracy — Staples's Prosperity — An Anecdote of Mrs. Hoar — Finding an Old Survey Line — The Tracks of Mice in the Snow — The Appetite for Sound — A Bullfrog on the Ice — A Crooked Stick — Surveying.

CHAPTER VI. January, 1858 (Æt. 40)

233

Genuine and Artificial Words — The Maine Woods and the Concord Wood-Lots — The Glow of the Andromeda — A Load of Hay in Winter — Snowflakes — A Flock of Tree Sparrows — Lecturing in Lynn — Mr. Buffum's Account of the Sea-Serpent — Nahant — The Lynn Quarries — The Song of the White-throated Sparrow — A Mild Winter — Saw Mill Brook — The Bark of a Fox — Improvement and Stagnation — The Fox's Bark again — Water-Bugs — Poison Sumach — A Book about Buds — The Birch Fungus — True Life — April Rain — A Distant Cloud — Minott's Ear for Bird-Notes — Bright-colored Fungi — The Pool in Gowing's Swamp — Ice-Crystals.

CHAPTER VII. February, 1858 (Æt. 40)

271

Sounding Gowing's Swamp — Ledum latifolium — Family History — The Heaved-up Pond-Shore — The Large Blueberry Bushes at Goose Pond — An Old Sketch of Concord Jail — The Earth's Breath — A Canada Lynx — A Concord Negro Slave — Barberry Wood — Pine Cones.

CHAPTER VIII. March, 1858 (Æt. 40)

288

A Flock of Snow Buntings — The Slavery of the Press — Philology and Ethnology — An Indian's English — Some Indian Customs — The Indian Language — A Musquash — Academy Grants in Maine — A Rill of Melted Snow — The Note of the First Flicker — Arriving Birds — A Spring Wind — View from Fair Haven Hill — The American Yew — Swarms of Gnats — The Seriousness of Life — Handsome Willow Catkins — A Scmiriparial Walk — A Willow Creel — The Spring Revival of the Fishes and of all Nature — Interesting Houses — Gulls and Ducks — A Flock of Shore Larks — Fox-colored Sparrows — Sheldrakes — Hazel Blossoms — Spring Gossamer — Painted Tortoises — A Large Bird of Prey — Croaking Frogs — A Lively Party of Sheldrakes — Black Ducks Asleep — The Early Turtles.

CHAPTER IX. April, 1858 (Æt. 40)

338

Squirrels' Nests — A Little Snapping Turtle — An Hour's Conversation — Two Striped Snakes — The Foolishness of the Wise Philosophers — The Purple Finch's Song — Rana halecina — A Curious Kind of Spawn — The Gregariousness of Men — Studying Frogs — Boys Fishing — Frog-Spawn — The Booming of the Snipe — An Old Rats' Nest — A Partridge on the Railroad — Frog-Spawn — Hylodes — A Near View of a Mink — Hatching Fishes — Hatching Tadpoles — The Study of Frogs — Geese at Fair Haven Pond — A Versatile Goldfinch — Rice on Lamprey Eels — Apron Lichens — Rana palustris — Frog-Spawn and Pollywogs — A Fish Hawk — Young Fishes — The Fish Hawk again — Mistaken Identity.

CHAPTER X. May, 1858 (Æt. 40)

389

Individuality — Rana palustris — Fish Hawk and Crows — Frog Hawks — Frogs — A Fish Talk with Witherell — A Frog in a Firkin — The Notes of Rana palustris — The Thinker — A Wood Tortoise — Stone-Heaps in the Assabet — The Bullfrog's Trump — Viola pedata — Pickerel in a Ditch — Frog-Spawn and Tadpoles — A Large Water Adder — Chestnut Planks — Red Squirrel and Maple Keys — Thalictrum dioicum — A Hummingbird in the House — A Tree-climbing Black Snake — An Agreeable Rain — A Talk with Puffer — A Distant Mountain-Range — The Mysteries of Nature — Swallows over the River — The Home of a Fox

Family — The Old Fox — A Cat Owl's Nest — Young Birches — To Worcester on the Way to New York — Quinsigamond Pond — The Track of a Thunderbolt — New York and Staten Island — A Turtle Dove's Nest — Emys meleagris — A Hen-Harrier's Nest — A Wild Mouse — A Sea-Turn.

CHAPTER XI. June, 1858 (Æt. 40)

452

Ascending Monadnock — Pitching Camp — Fringilla hycemalis and its Nest — Defacers of Mountain-Tops — Night-hawks — Dawn on Monadnock — The Plants of the Summit — The Rocks of Monadnock — Spawn in a Rock Cistern — The Spruce of the Mountain-Top — Lichens on the Mountain Top — Pools and Bogs — A Mountain-Top Walk — Clouds and their Shadows — The Descent of the Mountain — The Changing Form of a Mountain — The Walk to Winchendon — Some Handsome White Pines — The Effects of a Fire in a Swamp — Evidence against Marauding Birds — A Pout and her Nest — Bullfrogs in Full Blast — Breams' Nests — A Marsh Hawk — A Maryland Yellow-Throat's Nest — Turtles' Eggs — Ledum — A Song Sparrow's Nest — Plants growing in Circles — Boys and Birds' Eggs — A Handsome Turtle — More Birds' Eggs — A Talk with Mr. Henry Bryant at the Natural History Rooms — A Tanager's Nest — A Veery's Nest — More Eggs — Young Striped Squirrels — Two Wood Pewees' Nests — Bathing.

ILLUSTRATIONS

NATURE'S DECORATION OF AN OLD PINE
STUMP ( page 160 )	Frontispiece
IN THE EASTERBROOKS COUNTRY	112
CURLY-PATE HILL, ABOVE BATEMAN'S POND	154
WILLOW CATKINS	310
A TURTLE DOVE'S NEST	444