CONTENTS

CHAPTER I. November, 1855 (E1. 38) 3
A Beautiful Indian-Summer Day — A Swimming Kitten —
The River-Brink in November — Living and Getting a Living —
The White Birch Fungus — The Locheas — Collecting Driftwood — Birches and Willows — The Pleasures of a Mizzing Afternoon — A Dead Mouse — A Summer Duck — The Uses of Driftwood — Ways of Living — The Muskrat’s House
— The Hemlock Fall — A Mink — The Opening of a Pine
Cone — A Muskrat under the Ice — Rice’s Successful Life — Tracks in the Snow — Getting the Winter’s Wood — A Talk with Minott — Rice’s Turtle Story — An Old Way of Catching Wolves — Bringing Home the Boat.

CHAPTER II. December, 1855 (E1. 38) 38
Empty Halls — A Talk with Therien — A Spruce Swamp —
The Lesser Redpolls — Visits of the Northern Birds — The Beauty of Nature — Geese going over Cities — Tracks in the Snow — A Hemlock in Winter — Red Squirrels — Detecting Holes in the Ice — December Colors — Moderation in Buying Land — Root Fences — An Ice-incrusted World — Autobiographical — A Shrike — Red-wings’ Nests — A Walk in a Swamp — Ice-coated Grass — Birds’ Nests in Winter — One of the Mornings of Creation — Snow on the Railroad.

CHAPTER III. January, 1856 (E1. 38) 76
Leaf Crystals on the Ice — Tracing Tracks in the Snow —
Squirrel-Burrows in Snow — Honorable — Snow Ice — Pickerel-Fishing — Snow-Crystals — The Voracious Pickerel
— A Snow-Drift — A Dangerous Cow — Family Reminis-cences — Green Ice — Snow and Sand — The Swamp in CONTENTS

CHAPTER IV. February, 1856 (Er. 38)

CHAPTER V. March, 1856 (Er. 38)

CHAPTER VI. April, 1856 (Er. 38)

CHAPTER VII. May, 1856 (Er. 38)

CHAPTER VIII. June, 1856 (Er. 38)

The Succession of Forest Trees - A Chickadee's Nest - "Perch" Hosmer - A Star-nosed Mole - The Vivacious Wil.
CONTENTS

CHAPTER IX. July, 1856 (Frt. 38-39)

CHAPTER X. August, 1856 (Fr. 39)

ILLUSTRATIONS

CONCORD ELMS (page 136) Frontispiece
FROST-CRYSTALS ON ICE 78
SKUNK-CABBAGE 248
LADY’S-SLIPPERS 366
BAKER FARM AND FAIR HAVEN POND 402