

THE WRITINGS OF
HENRY DAVID THOREAU

JOURNAL

EDITED BY BRADFORD TORREY

IX

AUGUST 16, 1856-AUGUST 7, 1857

BOSTON AND NEW YORK
HOUGHTON MIFFLIN AND COMPANY

The Riverside Press, Cambridge

1906

COPYRIGHT 1906 BY HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.

All rights reserved

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I. August, 1856 (Æt. 39) 3

Cynoglossum officinale — Cassia — The Roadside Garden — A Red Huckleberry — A Sociable Afternoon — Desmodiums — The Prevailing Goldenrods and Asters — The River rising — The Pearly Everlasting — Decodon — A Robber Bee — Chimney Swallows' Nests — Shipwrecked Grasshoppers — August Freshets — A Proposed High-Water Record — A Fish Hawk and an Eagle — A Blue Heron — A New England Landscape — Aster macrophyllus — A Lost Pig — Catching the Pig — Rattlesnake-Plantain — Cardinal-Flowers — The Hatching of a Tortoise — A Camphor Barometer — An Afternoon Expedition — Cranberrying — Vaccinium Oxyccocus — A Successful Afternoon — The Hairy Huckleberry — Wildness in Concord — The Worship of Stones — No Room for Passengers — Viburnum nudum Berries.

CHAPTER II. September, 1856 (Æt. 39) 50

Beautiful Fungi — Asters and Goldenrods — Wild Pigeons — Discoveries — Salix lucida — The Changing of the Leaves — The Sin of Bathing — Viburnum nudum Berries — To Brattleboro, Vermont — Botanizing in Brattleboro — The Connecticut River — Leather-Wood — The Coldwater Path — Chesterfield Mountain — A Saranac Panther — Histories, Old and Modern — Fall Mountain — With Alcott in Walpole, N. H. — List of Plants obtained on this Excursion — Gathering Wild Grapes on the Assabet — Asters and Mayweed — Raising Teasels — A Dextrous Barberry-Picker — The Pear Crop and the Huckleberry Crop — Corydalis in Bloom — The Goldenrods and Asters — A Fine Afternoon — Arum Berries — Desmodium and Bidens Seeds — Wild Grapes — A Canada Lynx — General Hull — Strong Drink and Mowing.

CHAPTER III. October, 1856 (Æt. 39)	96
Milkweed Seeds — A Small Crop of Cranberries — Four Little Irish Boys and a Horse — Autumnal Tints — The Alligator — The American Lion — Mrs. Swisshelm's Cougar — Puffball Architecture — Homely Things — Twittering Sparrows — The Asters and Goldenrods — Chestnuts — An Old Concord Shopkeeper — Flocks of Sparrows — Laurel Glen — Harvesting — An Offensive Fungus — Fallen Leaves — Fringed Gentians — Chickadees — Chestnuts — The Theme is Nothing — One of Minott's Hunting Stories — Flocks of Sparrows — Myrtle-Birds — An Inquisitive Bird — Milkweed Pods — Wachusett — Gossamer — Minott's Guns — Minott at a Turkey-Shooting — Gambling on Concord Common — Father's Father — Beaton, the Storekeeper — To Eagleswood, Perth Amboy — The Cougar — A New Viburnum — The Persimmon — Some Other New Jersey Trees.
CHAPTER IV. November, 1856 (Æt. 39)	137
Wild Grapes — New Jersey and New England — The Cat's Winter Coat — A Hungry Yankee — Perth Amboy Oysters.
CHAPTER V. December, 1856 (Æt. 39)	144
A New England Farmer — The Shrub Oak — Melvin, the Hunter — Improving the First Snow — Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" — A Strong Appetite — The Concord Countrymen — Nature's Winter Colors — A Cat, a Mouse, and a Cock — An Interview with the Shoemaker — Studying Botany — A Pair of Nuthatches — Simplicity — A Walk along the River — Otters' Tracks — The Otter in Concord — Snow-covered Weeds — The First Skating — The Pickerel-Fishers — The Grand Old Poem called Winter — The New England November — Notes From Bradford's History — Oak Leaves in December — The Hooting of an Owl — A Winter Sunset — The Murderous Lincoln Bridge — Minott's Wood-Lot — Our Brute Companions — Peter, the Pig-Butcher — Rake-toothed

Iceicles — A Characteristic Winter Evening — A Woodcock or Snipe — Shrub Oak Leaves — A Cold Ride — Lecturing at Amherst, N. H. — A Country Tavern — Cracks in the Ground — Walden frozen over — An Owl's Hooting — The Red of the Andromeda — The Oak Leaves in Winter — The Cracking of the Ground — The Spicy Seeds of the Lycopus — The Walden Fishermen — Snakes' Eggs — The Diplomacy of Savages.
CHAPTER VI. January, 1857 (Æt. 39)	203
Returning to Nature — Happiness in Nature — A Walk in the Woods and Fields — Skylights — Rough and Smooth — Dry Leaves on the Snow — Minott's Life — Casey, the Guinea Negro — The Cold Friday — Running a Line — Lecturing — A Negro's Answer — Solitary Woodland Walking — The Country Club — Travelling — A Strain of Music — The Ice Floor — Cocoons — A Song Sparrow — The Tracks of Mice — The Treatment of Travellers — A Boy's Cave in the Snow — A Flock of Snow Buntings — Minott on the Cold Friday — Very Cold Weather — A Song Sparrow in the Yard.
CHAPTER VII. February, 1857 (Æt. 39)	235
Fitchburg in Midwinter — Theodore Parker — The Infidelity of Church-Goers — A Crazy Hen — A Frost-covered Glaze — Quails in the Barn-yard — Perpetual Music — Simplicity of Life — A Hardy Old Man — A Puffball — A Friendship ended — Willow Hedges — Voyaging — Arabian Bargaining — A Frozen Caterpillar — Concord History — The Ruins of the Lee House — The Lee House Chimney — How to catch a Pig — An Old Inscription — Daniel Webster's Farming — The Chimney's Composition — A Crust of Manners — Mildew on the Ground — A Gossamer Veil — Listening for the Bluebird — A Mouse's Nest — The Minott House — The Bird and the Ear — Friendship — The Thread of the River — Curled Cinders from a Burning House — Puffballs — Clergymen.

- CHAPTER VIII. March, 1857 (Æt. 39) 285
 Gusty Weather — Rice's Poetic Life — A Red Squirrel — The Great Lakes — Botanical Notes — The First Green Blush — A Woodchopper's Rustic Beetle — The First Dawn of Spring — Goodwin's Fuel and Emerson's — Nuthatches — A Talk with Agassiz — Humphrey Buttrick on Guns — Croaking Frogs — The First Planting — A Talk with the Blacksmith — The Earliest Voice of the Pools — Tortoises — The Painted Tortoise — Buff-edged Butterflies — Tortoises — Plowing — Croaking Frogs and Hylodes — Cannon-Balls.
- CHAPTER IX. April, 1857 (Æt. 39) 315
 A Genuine Wayfaring Man — At Ricketson's — A Croaking Frog — Toads — The New Bedford Library — Bayberry Tallow — New Bedford Fishermen — Ricketson's Shanty — Catching Smelts — Civilization and the Fishes — To the Middleborough Ponds — A Strange Turtle — Carrying Home the Turtle — The New Bedford Climate — The Walden Pond Society — Birds up River — The White Birch — A Nature-loving Girl — A True Merman — A Birch-Bark Box — Scudding Wind-Clouds — A Snake in the River — Killing Snakes — Out of Doors — Showery Weather — Ricketson's Fear of Lightning — Spicy-scented Ants.
- CHAPTER X. May, 1857 (Æt. 39) 349
 The Universal Ring of the Toads — A Morning for a Cruise — A Strange Toad or Frog — The Trill of the Toad — Some of Minott's Stories — Earthworms — Corduroy — At Gilson's Mill, Littleton — Freedom in Thought — The Bay-Wing's Song — The Strain of a Sparrow — Wood Tortoises — Birch Nymphs — Yellow Birches — The Spicy-scented Ants — Pines in Pastures — Checkerberries — The Assabet Stone Bridge — Awe and the Potato-Rot — Nervous Invalids — May Training — An Apple-Grafter — A Threatening Cloud — A Hummingbird — A Thunder-Shower — Opportunity and Enterprise — Ucularia perfoliata — Blue Sky after a Storm — Gowing's Swamp — A Large Ants' Nest.

- CHAPTER XI. June, 1857 (Æt. 39) 396
 The Bobolink's Song — A Sprouting Willow — The Gentleman Traveller — The Creak of Crickets — Tortoises in Gowing's Swamp — Contemporary Plants — Seasons and Sentiments — An Afternoon with Minot Pratt — John Thoreau's Clothes — The Indigo-Bird — The Boston Natural History Rooms — At Watson's in Plymouth — To Clark's Island — Daniel Webster and the Sea-Serpent — General Winslow's Adventure — Lobster-Catching — A New-born Colt — To Manomet — Down the Cape on Foot — Taken for a Peddler — A Ride on a Blackfish — Family Prayers — An Indian Village — Yarmouth — Friends Village — A Village Street — Harwich — A Cranberry-Patch — A Noble Lake — Brewster — Eastham and Wellfleet — A Mother-Carey's-Chicken — An Old Wreck — A Humane House — Highland Light — Walking on the Beach — Oil on the Water — The Telegraph Station — The Wind at Highland Light — Fog on Cape Cod — The Bay Side — Bones of Blackfish and Whales — Mt. Ararat — A Night in an Attic — A "Master Mariner" — By Steamer to Boston — A Black Duck's Nest — An Owl's Nest — Farmer's Collection of Eggs — A Wasps' Nest.
- CHAPTER XII. July, 1857 (Æt. 39-40) 465
 The Hairy Huckleberry — Andromeda Polifolia — Minott on Duck-Shooting — A Large Pickerel — Young Pickerel — A Bumblebee's Nest — A Promethea Moth — Black Willow Seeds — Tephrosia — Springs — The Price of Friendship — A Swarm of Wood Flies — Ferns — To Boston on Way to Maine Woods — The Freetown Turtle — To Portland and Bangor — Looking for an Indian Guide — A Camping Outfit — At Moosehead Lake — The Northeast Carry — A Partridge with Young — The Making of a Canoe — New Views — Great and Small — Dr. Johnson's Willow — Sand Cherry.
- CHAPTER XIII. August, 1857 (Æt. 40) 500
 The Raspberry Air of Maine — Old Engravings of Lexington and Concord — A Little Trout-Pond.

ILLUSTRATIONS

HUBBARD'S BRIDGE AND WATER-LILIES	(page 23)
	Frontispiece
CORAL FUNGUS	50
SHRUB OAK LEAVES	184
BATEMAN'S POND	370
HIGHLAND LIGHT, CAPE COD	442