

My dear Mr. Dawes:

Mr. A. S. Clarke's last catalogue (just received) contains the following items that I would like to get:-

HARVARD. Necrology of the Alumni from 1851-'63. (IF the mention of Thoreau is not omitted.) 1.50

HAWTHORNE. Passages from the Note Books . sold

LANGUAGE. Lectures on the English Language. By Geo. P. Marsh.

OLD HOUSE BY THE RIVER. W. C. Prime.

I see that Mr. Clarke advertises a copy of Lowell's "Sir Launfal", 1st. edition, but the price is printed "0 00". Will he hold it until he has informed me of the price. Then he shall know by return mail if I will take it. /0,00

If the four books above given are secured for me, please ask Mr. Clarke to send me the bill plus the express, and I will remit at once.

He will probably recollect me, as I have dealt with him before.

I make this onerous request to you only to ask you to read the Thoreau Necrological Notice, and if it has no special significance to OMIT it from the list.
