

THE WALDEN WOODS PROJECT 2020-21

LIVE DELIBERATELY ESSAY CONTEST

Open to youth around the globe, ages 14-18*.
$500 cash prize in each of the two age groups!

“Aim above morality. Be not simply good; be good for something.”
— Henry David Thoreau to H.G.O. Blake, 27 March 1848

In 750 words or fewer, please respond to the following prompt:
Referring to the above quote, what does it mean to aim above morality? Why is it important, in the short-term or long-term, to be good for something?

Read the Contest Guidelines and submit essays at www.walden.org/education/essay-contest/
Deadline for submission is February 16, 2021

*19-year-olds enrolled in high school or equivalent when the Contest closes on February 16, 2021 are also eligible.

Call The WWP @ 781-259-4721 or email sarah.walker@walden.org with questions.